The Nechako Branch is all on one level.
There are no stairs or elevator.

There is a walker with a basket beside the front door.

There are shopping baskets with wheels and handles beside the front door.

When you enter, you will see the Service Desk.

Staff at this desk can help you get a library card.

They can also help you find books, DVDs, and other library materials.

This is what a library card looks like:

You must have a piece of ID to get a library card.

Your ID must have your legal name on it.

Children under 12 years old need a parent or guardian with them to get a library card.

Staff members wear silver badges with "Staff" written on them.

Staff like to answer your questions and can help you find things in the library.

Anyone can use a library computer for 30 minutes every day.

You can print, fax, scan, and photocopy in the computer lab.

You can ask about how to use a computer at the service desk.

There are two washrooms at the back of the library.

The soap in the washrooms has no smell.
The hand sanitizer has a strong smell.

One washroom has a single stall in a large room.

The other washroom has two stalls.

Both are wheelchair accessible.

You can choose which washroom best meets your needs.

The Nechako Branch library is often quieter and less busy than the Bob Harkins Branch.

The lights are very bright and make a humming noise.
